LOCAL NEWS.

A. E. Casey attended the Senatorial Convention at Steelville last week.

Miss Lora Flynn, of St. Louis, spent Sunday with relatives at this place.

A number of our citizens attended the picnic at Walnut last Saturday.

John Barrett, of Little Rock, Ark., is visiting relatives here.

Long & Bergmann have erected a handsome new sign over the front of their store.

T. G. Weller and wife, of St. Louis, are spending a few days with family at this place.

Dr. George Brooks and wife of Cal. spent Wednesday in Potosi, visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Kate Foster returned to her home in Farmington Saturday, after spending a few days with Miss Mary Gage.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith and daughter, of Boone, Mo., visited the family of Andrew Dean the first of this week.

From W. R. Tinsdale and family departed for their home in Kansas City yesterday, after spending several weeks with relatives at this place.

Moses A. Brown and Thomas M. Matthews, of Walnut Township, shipped three or four loads of live cattle from our depot to the St. Louis market, yesterday.

The work on Eugene O'Mara's new stone building is progressing rapidly. The foundation has been completed and builder Curtis is busy raising the superstructure.

Our readers who please make allowances for any shortcomings that may be found in this issue. In our hurry to get the paper out this week, we may have overlooked many of the details.

Miss Gertrude Hendler, who has been spending several weeks at St. Charles, Mo., returned yesterday, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Minnie Lee Muschney, who will visit her.

There are now confined in our county jail awaiting trial a number of the grand jury, the following prisoners: George Chapman, John A. Dile, Milton T. Tinsdale and Frank Young, all charged with grand larceny.

In addition to our regular list we sent out this week a large number of complimentary copies of the Journal. We hope these reaching them will give all the names to our already large subscription list.

Alex. Harrison, M. M. Flynn and W. T. Woodford, delegates to the State Republican Convention at Kansas City, Mo., returned home last Friday, and reported a large and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans.

Sheriff Scott has been detained at his Indian Creek home for the past week on account of the serious illness of his daughter, Miss Bertha. She is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. Drs. Anthony and Dunnegan have charge of the case.

The Potosi Journal is the first Republican paper that has ever started on its career in this county without a word of encouragement. Therefore our patrons can be reasonably assured that it will be permanent. It is the duty of every good Republican in the county to support this party organ. The subscription price is low and within the reach of all.

We are informed that the following named gentlemen, who were nominated by the recent Republican county convention, have declined the nominations, viz: H. Hawkins, for Justice of the Peace, 1st district; James A. Shields, for Probate Judge, and Chas. Williams, for Coroner. These vacancies will be filled by the County Central Committee.

Rev. A. J. Cheatham, of Hope, Ark., who has been called to the pulpit of the Presbyterian church at this place, will preach next Sunday morning and evening. This church has been without a regular pastor for more than a year, and the members of the congregation are to be congratulated upon securing such an able and efficient minister.

At the Democratic Senatorial Convention held at Steelville, Mo., on August 17th, Dr. W. R. Goodrich, of Washington County, was nominated to the office of State Senator to represent this the 24th senatorial district. The day was by far the best day yet held at Steelville, and the services of the convention were well served by the delegates. While we differ with him politically, we are glad to see that he is one of those hardy, brave Democrats who advocate progress and who do not shrink at the thought of the country.

James J. Parks went to Farmington, Mo., on Saturday, to attend a meeting of the county board of health. A party to that county board the day of the election, and the board is now in session at Farmington. A large number of delegates are attending the session, and the board is now in session at Farmington. A large number of delegates are attending the session, and the board is now in session at Farmington.

Between the hours of nine and eleven a.m. and the clock in the afternoon of this day, to signify such notice, together with the cooperation of citizens of this county.

Richard L. Scott, Sheriff of Washington County, Mo., Potosi, August 22, 1894.

An Unfortunate Mistake.

We learn that Mr. Wm. H. Hulsey, postmaster and merchant at Onyx, this county, was accidentally shot by his son one night last week.

Under the following circumstances: It seems that some persons have been stealing apples from Mr. Hulsey's spring house, and he was on the alert in order, if possible, to detect the thieves. His son hearing the dogs barking as though some intruder was around, picked up his shotgun and went to see. Upon reaching the spring house, he saw a man some distance off, and supposing him to be a thief, opened fire on him. The charge of shot lodged in the right arm and breast of Mr. Hulsey, causing quite a dangerous wound. Dr. Dunnegan, of Steelville, was called and succeeded in removing most of the shot, and entering the artery of his recovery.

Suicide.

News reached us last Saturday of the death of Mr. Wm. Hulsey, an aged and respected citizen of Johnson township, in this county. It seems that "Old Man Hulsey," as he was called, had successfully arranged all details for ending his earthly career. He wrote a note and left it where it could be found, stating his intention to commit suicide and where his body could be found. He then got into his buggy and drove to the Bryant Cemetery. Upon arriving there, he hitched his horse and went to the grave of his wife, who had recently died, got inside the packed fence that encloses the grave, where he swallowed a fatal dose of strychnine, the empty bottle found by his side indicating the cause of his death. He then laid down beside his wife's grave and expired. Upon finding the note left by the deceased, some members of the family hastened to the cemetery and the dead body was found lying in the house and buggy. Mr. Hulsey was over eighty years of age, and a supposed he became despondent over the loss of his wife.

Call for Republican Senatorial Convention.

The undersigned committee from the 24th Senatorial District of Missouri, do hereby call a convention to nominate a candidate for State Senator in said district, to be held at Potosi, Mo., on August 29, 1894, at 10 o'clock a.m.

The basis of representation in said convention to be one delegate for every 250 votes cast for William Weaver for Governor in 1892, and one additional delegate for each fraction of 250 or over. The number of delegates to which each county will be entitled is as follows:

Represented by: Dent, 1; Iron, 3; Madison, 3; Reynolds, 1; Washington, 3; Total, 8.

E. E. Russell, Crawford.
John S. Ayer, Dent.
H. H. Kettle, Iron.
C. S. Swanner, Madison.
E. E. Reynolds, Reynolds.
W. T. Hunter, Washington.

PROCEEDINGS
Of the County Republican Convention.

The Washington County Republican Convention convened at one o'clock p.m., Saturday, August 17, 1894, at the Masonic Hall, Potosi, Mo., and the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

A. W. Scott was selected as temporary chairman, Wm. E. Butler, secretary and Peter S. Coleman, assistant secretary.

The following committees were appointed, to-wit: On permanent organization and order of business, John T. Maxwell, Alex. Harrison and R. C. Bryan. On credentials, E. C. Baughner, W. P. Ramsey and P. E. Wood. On resolutions, W. E. Butler, John P. Evans and Bennett Bryan.

The committee on credentials reported, giving a full list of delegates. All townships represented and no complaints.

The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

We, the Republican party of Washington county, in convention assembled, hereby declare our unflinching allegiance to the principles of the Great Old Party, and proud of its record, ask the people to restore it again to power, that the sun of prosperity may again shine on this great country.

We regard the Democratic party, through its inaction and the uncertainty of its legislation, as being largely responsible for the sad condition now prevailing throughout our common country. Posing as an enemy of trusts, they have fostered the most gigantic in the land. A party of brilliant promises that have never been fulfilled. We ask a candid comparison of this record with that golden page in the history of our country marked by a series of prosperous Republican administrations.

Resolved, That we condemn the shameful and unfair gerrymander of the congressional districts of this state, whereby more than 250,000 citizens have been practically disfranchised.

The committee on permanent organization and order of business reported, recommending order of business and list of permanent officers, to-wit: Peter Lowe, of Concord township, chairman; W. E. Butler, secretary, and Peter S. Coleman, assistant secretary. Report of said committee was adopted.

The Republicans of Washington county held a mass meeting after the adjournment of the county convention, and elected the following delegates to the state, congressional and senatorial conventions, viz:

To State convention, E. W. Bliss, W. T. Hunter, Alexander Harrison, W. T. Woolford and W. E. Butler.

To congressional convention, 13th district, to be held at De Soto, Mo., August 30, 1894, W. B. Ramsey, S. R. Maclay, Geo. E. Breckenridge, William Bennett, Edward Hicks, Patrick Daugherty, W. H. Evans, John M. Hughes, John S. Wilkinson, Chas. A. Stocking, John Murphy and H. C. Compton.

To the senatorial convention, 24th senatorial district, to be held at Potosi, Mo., August 29, 1894, P. M. Declue, Watt Cole, S. H. Wilson, A. O. Gore, J. T. Page, J. M. Jamison, John F. Evans, J. P. Patterson, S. R. Maclay, Evan Armstrong, Eugene C. Baughner and James Andes.

Hopewell Items.

HOPEWELL, August 17, 1894.

Of course, our town must be represented through the columns of your paper.

Mrs. L. W. Garrett is visiting her mother near here.

Mr. J. A. Thompson and wife, of Bismarck, are visiting their many friends and relatives near here.

Miss Dora Bryant, of St. Louis, is visiting the family of J. J. Mallow.

Our public school is progressing nicely under the management of Frank McKinney, one of Irondale's popular young men.

Our miller tells us that he has more than he can do at present, but will get the engine up by the last of next week, and then, if necessary, can run day and night. All he wants is the trade.

Mr. R. H. Evans, of Paddy, Carter County, Mo., who is visiting friends and relatives at this place, met with a serious accident on Sunday last, which nearly cost him his life. He was returning home from Stony Point church, when his horse stumbled and fell, throwing him to the ground with such force that it rendered him unconscious for some time. Was seen by your correspondent today, and said his left shoulder was pulling him considerably. We hope for his speedy recovery.

"CLIFFORD."

Irondale Items.

IRONDALE, August 20, 1894.

Mr. Ed Christopher visited at Mr. P. M. Robinson's last week.

The annual meeting to clear up Big River Cemetery came off last Saturday, and was well attended. The grounds were cleared of all weeds and brush, which is right and proper. Let the cities of our dead be kept in the best possible order.

Elder I. B. Dodson, of Hematite, preached here last Friday evening, and Elder Browning, of Cape Girardeau, on Sunday morning and evening.

The infant child of David Hodges, died on Thursday of last week, and was buried on Friday at Big River Cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Martin and Mrs. Dr. J. L. Eaton went to Cape Girardeau last week to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. King are visiting friends and relatives in St. Francois county, and are taking in the camp meeting at Delassus.

The Irondale Farming & Mining Co. shipped a car load of fat cattle to St. Louis this week.

J. M. Jamison is delivering a car load of bone meal here this week, and expects another car in a few days.

James Hughes, of Brownwood, Mo., is home on a visit to parents and friends, and, perhaps, his best girl.

Mr. Skaggs, who lives near this place, had the misfortune to lose a horse one day last week while hauling wheat to Boone Terre. The animal slipped and fell on a rock in coming out of Big River at the Hunt ford, but it did not appear to be much hurt at the time, and Mr. S. drove on to Boone Terre, where he fed the horse. It ate but little and on the way home dropped dead.

"QUID NUNC."

Cadet Items.

CADET, Mo., August 20, 1894.

Mr. J. F. Richardson, of Mineral Point, who has a store at Cadet, has rented a large piece of ground from the railroad company for a wood yard, and will commence shipping wood from here soon.

Business is picking up on the Iron Mountain Railroad, judging from the number of trains that are passing. Seven or eight trains loaded with watermelons pass here daily.
